My name is Sarah. I appreciate your interest in working with me! I am a plus-size model and content creator based in beautiful East Tennessee. My content focuses on three pillars; body positivity, mental health, and lifestyle. I spent years fighting insecurity, an eating disorder, and undiagnosed mental illness to come out the other side, embracing my body, neurodivergence, and even my mental health struggles. I am passionate about helping others find peace in their bodies.

katrina.greene Not a boutique shopper either. I don't want to look like I'm twinning with everyone else in this town. But if this is Sarah approved I have to check it out!
